

On November 4th Willoughby Society held Its 21st Anniversary party A buffet laid on by Newton Caterers had as its centrepiece a cake presented by Mr and Mrs Brownlow and a flower arrangement by Mrs Val Hall. A toast to the society was proposed by Mrs Q. Hancock as one of the only four remaining founder members.

This was followed by entertainment given by members of the Rugby Victorian Ensemble. The evening was concluded with everyone receiving a piece of birthday cake The Social season of Willoughby Cricket Club is now in full swing and various fund raising 9 events have been organised', There are Bingo and Darts evenings in. the New Pavilion and a Youth disco and Folk Evening in the. Village Hall. Yet another Jumble Sale is being arranged and to conclude the year there is the Hosing Day Cricket Match against Offchurch and a sponsored walk around Flecknoe and Grandborough which includes a Treasure Hunt with clues and Two 'Pub Stops' on the 27th December. Anyone interested in any of these events contact Brian Hall or Beryl Hallam.

On November 4th Willoughby Society held its 1st Anniversary party. A buffet laid on by Newton Caterers had as its centrepiece a cake presented by Mr and Mrs Brownlow and a flower arrangement by Mrs Val Hall. A toast to the society was proposed by Mrs Q. Hancock as one of the only four remaining founder members.

This was followed by entertainment given by members of the Rugby Victorian Ensemble. The evening was concluded with everyone receiving a piece of birthday cake.

The Social season of Willoughby Cricket Club is now in full swing and • various fund raising 9 events have been organised', Then. & n Bingo and Darts evenings at the New Pavilion and Youth disco and Folk Evening in the Village Hall. Yet another Jumble Sale is being arranged and to conclude the year there is the Hosing Day Cricket Match against Offchurch and a sponsored walk around Flecknoe and Grandborough which includes a Treasure Hunt with clues and Two 'Pub Stops' on the 27th December.

Anyone interested in any of these events contact Brian Hall or Beryl Hallam.