Dear Mrs Ivens,

Thank you for your most interesting letter.

I was very sorry to hear of Mr. Bussey's death and sorry too, that I had inadvertently written at such a sad time.

I am still trying to work out my relationship to Mr. Richard Martin. It is going to take quite a while!

It is very pleasurable to me to know that the Willoughby Society will accept the sampler made by my grandmother, Emma Arnold, as a bequest in my will. I hope it will go from strength to strength.

Thanking you again for all the trouble you have taken,

Yours sincerely

Peggie Turner.

(Miss)

P.S. I am writing to Mr and Mrs. Martin. P.R.T.

Dear Mr. Bussey,

I am writing to you in your capacity of secretary to the Willoughby Society.

Recently I have been given an old copy of Warwickshire and Worcestershire Life, dated April 1984. in which the "Village of the Month" is Willoughby. My particular interest in this is the fact that my grandmother, Emma Arnold was born there in July 1853. The photograph enclosed is of the sampler she embroidered while a pupil at the local Charity School.

I am wondering if the Willoughby Society would be interested in my bequeathing it to them in my will. (The sampler that is.)

The Arnold family may well have died out in the intervening years; that is in your village. However my grandmother married a man named Alfred Samuel (Selwyn) Provette. who was born in
