

Village takes on festive note to mark hall's 60 years

Village in Willoughby opened their doors to the weekend at the diamond to celebrate their village hall.

A flower festival and stained glass festival in the Church of St Nicholas parishioners and willing volunteers this week. And at the village there was a craft display and craft sale.

The celebrations continued throughout the weekend.

up their gardens. As visitors came to the field.

A spokesman for the organisers said: "Everyone waked e hard. We never rushed off our feet."

and only napped to the special service at 10.30am on Saturday. Church evening.

Raised

It is not known exactly how much but organisers believe could be over £1,500.

The money will go toward the village hall and to the church.

Flower time Margaret Hubbard. (top in Her garden which was open to the craft display Willoughby WI Eileen Petifer and secretary Vanessa L.01...: 4-4 1.00/40 el 0* Mv:r patet onartwa-o-ft nroc*w*th L'Li' la* ...F' Ion* c'Pe' 0:41, C.' thf...e.the V ILO* hat